

RECORDS OF BAPTISMS, ST. NICHOLAS CHURCH

ZANESVILLE, OHIO, 1843 - 1847

Father Nicholas Gallinger was the first resident pastor of St. Nicholas' Church, Zanesville. Perhaps he named the church after his own personal patron saint.

As pastor he set up the first register of Baptisms, marriages, deaths, etc., for the new parish. He considered himself missionary priest for all the German Catholics of that and surrounding counties. Hence he wrote in the front of the book of Baptisms: "The German Missionary Territory of Zanesville."

Written in German Script, Father Gallinger's records frequently noted the name of the mission or station or town where the Baptism occurred. This is important in writing the history of some of those missions. Unfortunately, the Dominican Fathers, who were taking care of these places for some years before Father Gallinger's arrival in Zanesville, did not record the place of a Baptism if it was administered other than at their parish church, St. Thomas', in Zanesville.

It is important, therefore, to record here for the first time in English the records of Baptisms made by Father Gallinger from 1843 to 1847.
